

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND PARENT SEMINARS

LIVESTREAM

CEUs AVAILABLE

We are offering three livestream seminars that are directed towards school personnel, community professionals, and parents and family members who live or work with individuals on the autism spectrum.

The Center for Autism and Related Disabilities (CARD Albany) offers these seminars at no cost to participants living in New York State through a grant provided by the New York State Education Department. Funding is administered by The Research Foundation for the State University of New York.

Registration is required to attend. The link is available at the bottom of the email. Please choose the sessions you would like to attend when you fill out your registration entry.

These sessions will be recorded. In February, a separate registration will be available to view the recorded sessions.

FINAL LIVESTREAM DATE FOR THESE TOPICS:

Wednesday, January 31, 2023

Seminar One - 9:00am-10:15am

Building Bridges: Enhancing Social Connections Among Students with Autism and Their Peers

- Participants will be able to explain how the core characteristics of ASD affect the development of their peer relationships

- Participants will be able to identify research-based interventions for developing, maintaining, and understanding relationships
- Participants will become familiar with where to find evidence-based resources to support peer relationships

Seminar Two - 11:00am-12:15pm

Sticks and Stones: Students with ASD and Bullying Prevention Strategies

- Participants will be able to define the term "bullying" and identify forms of bullying behavior
- Participants will be able to identify factors that influence vulnerability to bullying in students with ASD
- Participants will be able to identify strategies they can use or teach others to use when faced with bullying

Seminar Three - 1:00pm-2:15pm

Unlocking Success: Strategies for Effectively Addressing School Refusal in Students with Autism

- Participants will be able to explain the link between autism and school refusal
- Participants will be able to list possible functions of school refusal behavior
- Participants will be able to develop effective strategies to address school refusal behavior

Continuing Education Credits

CARD Albany is an approved provider for the following continuing education credits:

School Psychologist (NASP)

NYS Social Worker (LMSW & LCSW)

Continuing Teacher and Leader Education (CTLE)

NYS Licensed Mental Health Counselor (LMHC)
NYS Psychologist
Board Certified Behavior Analysts (BCBA)

General certificates of attendance will be provided for all participants.

Each session is eligible for 1.25 contact hours for NASP, SW, CTLE, LMHC, and Psychologists. Session three is eligible for 1.5 contact hours for BCBA. There is a $5.00 processing fee per session for each CEU selected. Please visit our website for more information about CEU offerings. CEUs can be selected during registration and payment can be submitted online with a credit card.

Register Today!

Questions?

If you have questions or would like to learn more about any of our programs, please contact us at: 518-442-2574 or card@albany.edu

Additional information on all of our programs can be found on our website:
www.albany.edu/autism
